

PSYCHOTHERAPIST or SOCIAL WORKER

Shalem Mental Health Network is a dynamic agency, offering innovative programs to both the Hamilton area and the province of Ontario. A member of Family Service Ontario, Shalem is a faith-based agency serving the wider community as well as faith communities. With a culture of support and collaboration among its staff, and holding values of peace-making and professional excellence, it strives to offer great care, as well as be a safe and collaborative place to practice.

Our counselling centre's work is client-centered and attachment-informed, done within an anti-oppressive framework. From this context, the position of Clinical Therapist will offer psychotherapy to individuals, couples and groups through our counselling centre.

The ideal candidate will be able to work independently and also be part of a clinical team, using strengths based models, working respectfully with diverse clientele; balancing support and accountability; and being adaptable and flexible while facing client situations. The ideal candidate will have experience with addictions or couples therapy, however, we are also open to offering opportunities for trainings in those areas.

Position: we are willing to discuss both part time or full time positions, up to 35 hours a week. This position includes one early evening per week.

Responsibilities:

- Provide counselling to individuals, couples, families and groups through Shalem's Counselling Centre in Hamilton
- Maintain client files
- Participate in regular supervision, training and team meetings

Qualifications:

- Master's degree in social sciences or acceptable equivalent
- Registered member of the applicable college in Ontario and is eligible to practice independently in Ontario
- 2 years minimum experience
- Experience with addictions or couple therapy an asset, or opportunities for future training in addictions and couple therapy
- Ability to tend to themes of diversity and anti-oppression

Reporting: This position reports to the Clinical Director
